

Sports Director

One of WIQH's specialties is covering CCHS sports action. The Sports Director coordinates our coverage—live play by play and sports reporting after the fact. (S)he also helps create and coordinate regular sports talk shows and all other sports-related programming.

Some specific things you'll be doing:

- prior to the start of each sports season, deciding what games WIQH will broadcast
- recruiting and selecting announcers and producers for each live sports broadcast
- training interested members to be sports announcers
- working with coaches and players to set up interviews
- supervising and critiquing sports broadcasts to help improve them
- actually announcing some games yourself (if desired)
- making arrangements with opposing team coaches and schools to get rosters, away game broadcast permission and press box space
- creating regular sports updates on WIQH and training others to do the same
- producing promos for WIQH sports broadcasts
- adding new and different sports programming to WIQH's schedule
- keeping in constant communication with CCHS's Athletic Director about schedules and things
- preparing Show Logs and Donor Announcements for several weeks of the year
- attending regular managers meetings

Personal qualities you will need:

- willing and able to devote 5 - 10 hours per week to the station every week, much of it actually AT the station
- very comfortable spending time on the phone contacting and scheduling sports announcers
- a solid knowledge of sports in general with a strong interest in a wide variety of sports
- very well organized
- good at getting things done ahead of time
- detail oriented
- enjoys creative writing and good at commenting on sporting events
- computer skills including MS Word, email

There's a fair amount of scheduling work (games, announcers, etc.) required of this job. There's also unlimited opportunity to be creative and add immensely to the quality of WIQH's sports programming.

The current Sports Director is David Craft, '17. You might want to talk to him – or Ned Roos – about this job if you want to apply for it.
